

YULIYAPATSAY

STORYTELLER

Yuliya (it rhymes with Goo-lia) Patsay is Soviet born and San Francisco raised. She's a natural born storyteller and performer.

She specializes in speaking on creativity, entrepreneurship, and the art of storytelling.

Yuliya's stories are rooted in her experience as an immigrant and are shaped by her interest in exploring belonging, identity and bias.

CLIENT FEEDBACK

"When Yuliya speaks, she is utterly captivating. What seems like a casual anecdote suddenly has you in tears, from laughter or from a place of deep connection - or both. Her stories move quietly into your heart and become a place that you return to over and over when you need to reflect on something important."

Emiko Susilo

"Yuliya is a magnetic speaker and writer who shares from her heart. She's can spin a yarn like no other, and her voice is like buttah!"
